

Welcome to Gorghì Tondi Hospitality by Nature.

Vineyards as far as the eye can see overlooking the Mediterranean, lying on limestone lands, kissed by the sun and the constant sea breezes. All around the Mediterranean maquis, marshy areas, and Saracen olive trees.

This is Gorghì Tondi, an unspoiled habitat of an extreme, and suggestive Sicily, set inside the Nature Reserve Lago Preola and Gorghì Tondi*. Experiencing it means to embrace wine culture, protection of the territory, and beauty of the landscape.

We are in South-Western Sicily, a stone's throw from Mazara del Vallo's old town, the kasbah and the museum of the Dancing Satyr, with its unmistakable gastronomy made of couscous and red prawn; the coast, very close and with its crystal-clear sea, is a destination for surf and kitesurf enthusiasts, in the nearby Puzziteddu spot, and for archeology lovers as well, there are the areas of Segesta and Selinunte. All elements that make Gorghì Tondi an unmissable destination for quality nearby tourism.

Experiencing wine at Gorghì Tondi therefore takes on a particular value: the care taken in welcoming visitors to the winery and the tasting options offered, both the sign of our passionate and attentive hospitality approach.

* Tenuta Gorghì Tondi does not arrange guided tours to the regional reserve of Lago Preola and Gorghì Tondi. It is however possible to book, subject to availability, a visit with qualified personnel of WWF Italia Onlus, the entity responsible for the management and protection of the Reserve itself, by contacting them directly.
